

three lonely piano pieces

Composed about a month after the end of a long and wonderful relationship, these pieces reflect three different shades of loneliness, from angst to resignation to acceptance.